Revised Limitations on the Scope of Review for Redeterminations & Reconsiderations

The Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) has recently issued a revised directive to its contractors handling appeals that are a result of a “complex prepayment reviews, complex post-payment reviews or automated post payment reviews”. CMS has informed the Durable Medical Equipment Medicare Administrative Contractors (DME MACs) and the Qualified Independent Contractor (QIC) that during the redetermination and reconsideration levels they may only “limit their review to the reason(s) the claim or line item at issue was initially denied”.

This means that the contractors may no longer deny your claim for a different reason upon further review of the claim, they may only review and make a decision based on the initial issue at hand. However, this limit doesn't apply to appeals that are the result of an automated pre-payment review denial. The limit on the scope of review only applies to appeals which are the result of denials due to complex prepayment reviews, complex post-payment reviews or automated post payment reviews.

This is a beneficial shift in policy. Previously, the DME MACs and the QIC could still “develop new issues and evidence at their discretion” and issue unfavorable decisions for any reason besides the one provided with initial determination; even on post-payment reviews. Now, they may only “develop new issues and evidence at their discretion” when a claim is denied on an automated pre-payment review basis only.

This revised directive and instructions only applies to redetermination and reconsideration requests received by the DME MAC or QIC on or after April 18, 2016. The revised instructions will not be applied retroactively. You may view the MLN Matters article which outlines these new directives here.

BOC's Board Approves Program Changes for Orthotic, Prosthetic, and Pedorthic Certifications

On May 3, 2016, The Board of Certification/Accreditation (BOC)'s Board of Directors recently approved a plan to sunset the acceptance of new applications for its orthotist (BOCO), prosthetist (BOCP), and pedorthist (BOCPD) certifications. The decision will lead to greater growth opportunities for the organization and streamline the professions' credentialing options. BOC will accept applications for the orthotist, prosthetist, and pedorthist credentials through July 31, 2016.

"BOC has been a recognized partner in these fields for more than 30 years and remains firmly committed to supporting our certificants and the millions of people who depend on BOC professionals to improve the quality of their lives," said L. Bradley "Brad" Watson, BOCO, BOCP, LPO, Chair of the BOC Board of Directors. "The Board's decision will have no impact on current BOC certificants like me. All BOC certificants will have the organization's support throughout their entire career."

BOC will continue to provide assistance to all BOC-certified professionals in meeting continuing education requirements, renewing their certifications, and ensuring BOC professionals deliver the highest level of quality patient care.

BOC also remains committed to representing the interests of the orthotic, prosthetic, and pedorthic professions, including continuing membership and active participation in the O&P Alliance. "As a leading provider of professional credentials for those providing prosthetic, orthotic, and pedorthic care, BOC has demonstrated for decades their commitment to the patients who depend on BOC certificants for high-quality care," said Susan Stout, President & CEO of Amputee Coalition. "We applaud BOC for standing by their current certificants, ensuring patients continue to have access to care from the providers they depend upon for these essential services. The BOC is making this transition with considerable integrity and commitment to the patients served by BOC certificants."

The organization's facility and pharmacy accreditation programs and certification programs for the orthotic fitter (COF), mastectomy fitter (CMF), and durable medical equipment specialists (CDME) are unaffected by the Board's decision. Offering these credentials remains a long-term commitment of the organization.

BOC has been acclaimed for their award-winning innovation and customer service, earning five internationally recognized Stevie Awards. Both the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) and the Department of Veterans Affairs have accepted the BOC credentials as meeting their standards. Additionally, BOC practitioners are included as qualified providers in the Benefits Improvement and Protection Act of 2000 (BIPA).

John Izak, CPO, Recognized for Saving a Life and Starting a Save Others Program

John Izak, CPO, and General Partner in Pennsylvania-based Orthologix, has created a program to offer free CPR, AED, and other emergency medical procedure certification courses to those involved with youth athletics. The program also seeks to place AEDs (automated external defibrillators) on the sideline of youth athletic events.

The nonprofit program, Trevor's Heart Start, was named after a young athlete who went into cardiac arrest at a soccer game Izak was attending last October. The youth collapsed on the field, had stopped breathing and had no pulse. Izak and an EMT on site started CPR. The EMT administered chest compressions while Izak gave mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. The North Penn Fire Company soon arrived and shocked Trevor's heart with an AED. Trevor was ultimately transported to The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. The combined efforts saved his life and prompted Izak to start Trevor's Heart Start to educate others on how to handle emergencies.
