Be Heard: Policy Forum 2015

Join us March 23-25 at the Renaissance Hotel in Washington, DC!

The 2015 AOPA Policy Forum will be held March 23-24, 2015 with post-conference events being held March 24-25 at the Renaissance Hotel, 999 Ninth Street, NW, Washington, DC.

The Policy Forum is your best opportunity to learn the latest legislative and regulatory details and how they will affect you, your business and your patients. Once you are armed with the facts, we as a profession will educate our Members of Congress to offer common sense solutions and share how the O&P profession restores lives and puts people back to work. Your Congressional appointments will be organized by AOPA staff and lobbyists.

Carlos Gonzalez of San Francisco, CA, has been chosen as the $1,000 Grand Prize winner of the C-Leg Heroes 15 year anniversary photo contest sponsored by Ottobock. Gonzalez' winning photo submission shows him performing a martial arts move, a sport he took up following his amputation and one that has gone far in helping to rebuild his confidence and self-esteem.

"My amputation in 2005 was the result of a series of complications from a stray bullet gunshot wound and the healing process was long and drawn out due to several surgeries," says Gonzalez. "It wasn't until I was fit with the New C-Leg in 2012 at the Orthotic and Prosthetic Center at UCSF Orthopaedic Institute that I finally felt I had what I needed to be able to really move forward in regaining my mobility and trying new activities. It's been life-changing in so many ways."

The photo contest was implemented by Ottobock as part of the celebration taking place to mark the arrival of the C-Leg in the US in 1999 and to highlight its far reaching and life-changing impact.

Sign Up for the Mastering Medicare Webinar: Find Success: Tips, Strategies and Understanding the Appeals Process

February 11, 2015, 1:00-2:00 PM

Learn the ins-and-outs of the five levels of the Medicare appeals process, including what type of claims can and cannot be appealed. Find out the best way to craft a successful agreement to ensure success in your appeal.

The webinar will focus on navigating the curves of the appeals process, and explain why it's an important part of your business operation. An AOPA expert will address the following issues during the webinar:

- The five levels of appeals
- Helpful hints on filing appeals
- Strategies to achieve a successful appeal
- Evaluating the necessary information to include in an appeal
- What type of information should and should not be included in an appeal?

AOPA members pay $99 (nonmembers pay $199), and any number of employees may participate on a given line. Attendees earn 1.5 continuing education credits by returning the provided quiz within 30 days and scoring at least 80 percent. Register now.

ABC and NCOPE Awarded ISPO Category I Recognition

The International Society for Prosthetics and Orthotics (ISPO) has awarded the American Board for Certification in Orthotics, Prosthetics and Pedorthics, Inc. (ABC) and the National Commission on Orthotics and Prosthetics Education (NCOPE) Category I recognition, a distinction first awarded in March of 2009.

The Category I recognition validates the ABC/NCOPE pathway for those individuals interested in obtaining their CPO designation. With this honor the ABC/NCOPE CPO pathway is recognized throughout the world as having met the highest international educational standards in existence today. ABC is the only credentialing body in the United States to receive Category I recognition from ISPO.
